“ I never really got the experience of having an actual grandma, so being able to take care of her was a blessing for me. I loved everything about her, her smile, her spirit, her mouth of a salty sailor even. She will be truly missed and forever loved!!!!

“ I just remember her being her funny self and some of the things she would say that she probably should not tell me but knowing I was her favorite was the best thing I love her always and forever
