

Alicia Ann Jettner

December 8, 1961 - March 29, 2026

Alicia Ann Jettner passed away peacefully in her sleep on March 29, 2026, at the age of 64. She was born December 8, 1961, in Chicago. At the age of four, her family moved to New York State, where she spent the remainder of her life. Alicia graduated from Albany High School in June 1980 and went on to earn her Bachelor of Arts degree with a dual major in Anthropology and Studio Art from SUNY Oneonta in 1984. She later received her Master's Degree in History at SUNY Albany in May 1987. She also earned her Certificate of Advanced Study in Public History, which led to a successful career as the owner of her own business as a grant writer and records management specialist. She is survived by her sister Susan Natoli and brother-in-law, Robert Natoli, and by her niece and nephew, Laura and Michael Natoli. She is reunited in Heaven with her parents Frank and Amalia Jettner. Graveside services will be held at Albany Rural Cemetery on Tuesday, April 7, 2026, at 1:00 p.m. She was known for her intelligence, kindness, and love of cats. She will be deeply missed by her family and all who knew her.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Alicia's passing. I had the pleasure of spending time with her recently and she helped the Town of Middleburgh with our records. She was a very kind and intelligent lady. May she rest in peace.

Renee Schmidt, Town Clerk, Town of Middleburgh.

“ Alicia was always professional and was an expert in the field of records management. Alicia worked with me and helped establish the records management program of the Town of Bethlehem, as well as, obtaining grants from the New York State Archives. May she rest in peace and have a party with her family. Kathleen A.

Newkirk, MMC, Retired Town Clerk, Records Management Officer of the Town of Bethlehem.
