

Allan K. Doering

September 28, 1929 - November 3, 2016

Allan K. Doering, age 87, passed away peacefully on November 3, 2016 at St. Peters Nursing and Rehabilitation Center

Born in Albany, he was a lifelong resident. He was an army veteran of the Korean War era. Allan graduated from Albany High School and the School of Practical Art, Boston. After graduation, he worked for a local advertising agency for 9 years and then worked as an artist for 25 years for the NYS Department Of Transportation.

After his retirement, he enjoyed painting, woodworking and model making. He was a member of the German American Club for over 50 years.

Son of the late Marguerite and Karl Doering, and loving husband of the late Virginia Doering, he is survived by his daughter Kimberley Harfenist and her husband Stephen, of Princeton Junction, NJ; his son Karl Doering and his wife Gail, of Loudonville, NY and 5 grandchildren; Stacy and Michael Harfenist and Kayla, Eric and Alex Doering.

Special thanks to The Community Hospice and the staff of St. Peter's Nursing and Rehabilitation center.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Autism Society of the Greater Capital Region, New York, 101 State Street, Schenectady, NY 12305.

Tribute Wall

PC

“ I will always remember the wonderful conversations that I had with Al. When I visited him he would tell me about the old days and how he loved to paint and draw. He would be so happy to show me what new painting he was working on. Such a talented man. I will miss him dearly.

Pamela Cohen - November 03, 2016 at 08:47 PM

PC

“ I will always remember the wonderful conversations that I had with Al. When I visited him he would tell me about the old days and how he loved to paint and draw. He would be so happy to show me what new painting he was working on. Such a talented man. I will miss him dearly.

Pamela Cohen - November 03, 2016 at 08:46 PM