“ To my other mother, Ma

Deep Peace of the running wave to you.

Deep Peace of the flowing air to you.

Deep Peace of the quiet Earth to you.

Deep Peace of the shining stars to you.

Deep Peace of the shades of night to you.

Moon and Stars always giving light to you.

Old Celtic Prayer

To my "siblings" - you were a blessing to her in the final days. All my love, Mar

“OMG I just sent her birthday wishes? Can't believe I'm reading this? We've been friends for 30+ years! I'm going to miss our crazy phone calls and my drop in visits, when I get back to Albany! We always tried to fit in a lunch or drink and a laugh. Gosh I'm going to miss my dear friend! It was hard saying goodbye to the Mayor, John was always lovely. But Ann & I had a special friendship, that surpassed many things and miles, but kept on going! I am coming back the end of the month and couldn't wait to see her? I'm so sad! I love all of you, and I'm so sorry for your loss, she loved each of you so much & was crazy about each of you and each of yours! She had so much knowledge to share, I see it in your FB pages! I hope you take the blueberries with you, they're a legacy all of their own! We will be with you in spirit on Ann's special day, I'm sorry I can't be there in person. Tom & I send our love & prayers, Sandy & Tom Brown xxxx

“To the Wagner family: I am so very sorry for your loss. When I think of your mom, I think of her in the kitchen (with the big arrow on the wall!)or the dining room sewing. If not there, then in the garden but always with her hands bus! :) She always had a smile on her face and a kind word to say. She was quite a lady.
