“ I just found out today about the loss of Antoinette. She was a dear friend and related to our family when her Brother was Married to my Sister. She also was in my Graduating Class of 1965 at Colonie Central High. She has always been a warm and caring person. I can remember when we first met as neighbors in West Albany as her Family lived not far from us. She has always been a part of our Family since then. Doug, although we have never met, please know that she was dearly loved and will be missed until we see her again in Paradise.

“ My deepest condolences to Christie and Bob, and Doug and to the whole family.
While I did not know Antoinette, I have known Christie for many years and she has been a godsend to me many times. A true light in my life and in this world. We talked many times of her mom and her dad and I know Christie has the deepest love for her mom and dad. Thank you Antoinette and Doug for giving the gift of Christie to this world. A mother's love is undying and will always surround you.

“ My beautiful Sister. My heart breaks knowing we will never be able to talk again. Sometimes the only person a girl can share with is their sister. You were the most loving, giving person I have ever known. You did so much for me when I was a little girl. The agonizing hours you spent taking me to tap classes and sat through them. The memories of you teaching me how to do what was needed in my puberty years, The hugs, tears & kisses when I was a teen. Sharing our bedroom all of the years until you married Doug. The honor of asking me to be godmother to your only child Christie, You being the godmother of my first born child James. Being your maid of honor at your wedding. Dancing to the jukebox in the basement of our childhood home. The 45 record covers that you had on the wall of our bedroom. Making me love the music of Elvis, Beatles and all the "oldies". Spraying your big hair with aqua net in our bedroom every morning making me gag. Our age gap seemed irrelevant as we became adults. Then we bonded as friends. Thanks to you & Doug bringing me to a brunch where I met Bob. I could write forever about you, You NEVER complained about your MS. you always gave yourself unselfishly to the family. The fun & laughs every Christmas eve at your home, Always with gifts for everyone, as well as welcoming everyone to your home. The last gift you gave me was a bracelet with a heart charm that is engraved, my sister, my friend. I wear it proudly and will cherish it forever. I love you and take comfort in knowing you are with Mom & Dad in heaven. You will be missed more than I can express. My love and memories of "us" will never fade. XOXO until we are together again.
