

Christine M. Crisorio

March 27, 1950 - November 14, 2016

COLONIE, Christine Crisorio passed away peacefully on November 14, 2016 at St. Peters hospice after courageously battling a long illness.

She was the daughter of the late John T and Margaret O'Brien. Christine was the beloved wife of James Crisorio; cherished mother of Lori Crisorio and very special grandmother to Dylan and Kayleigh Crisorio-Rivera.

She is also survived by her brothers; John T (Karla) O'Brien, Richard (Kathy) O'Brien, Kevin (Marie) O'Brien, Robert (Mary) O'Brien, and Terrence (Denise) O'Brien. She is the daughter in law of the late Guido (Rita) Crisorio and sister in law to the late John (Alice) Crisorio and Aunt to several beloved nieces and nephews.

Christine leaves behind many close friends, including two that are dearest to her heart; Donna Grebert and Lou Ann Whalen who were always there to support her and help her laugh through her illness.

She graduated from Holy Names in 1968. Worked as a senior examiner for the State Insurance Fund for 33 years. Worked part time at PMR Insurance Co. for 4 years. In retirement Christine enjoyed going to camp with her family and vacationing in Cape Cod.

The family would like to thank Dr. Elizabeth Higgins, Dr. Evangelist, the visiting nurses and hospice staff for their exceptional care.

A memorial service will be held Friday 8:30 am at Blessed Sacrament Church. Relatives and friends are invited. No calling hours at the funeral home.

Intermit at St. Agnes Cemetery.

In Lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to The Center for Disability Services Albany, NY 12208.