

Demetrius McCord

May 29, 1978 - March 19, 2021

It is with great sadness and a heavy heart that I announce the loss of my friend, partner, and husband Demetrius McCord. Demetrius passed away suddenly last Friday, March 19th, at the age of 42.

We always say that he is survived by, I do not like this idea. It does not demonstrate the true nature of the relationships that Demetrius fostered. Demetrius would always have a kind word. He would speak to your thoughts, and ideas. He would take these and help you forge a destination. A destination that again made you comfortable. He was the epitome of the social graces. He dressed stylish, his grooming was immaculate, but this never made you uncomfortable. It made you want to do the same. I can honestly say that the time I had with him, I have been truly blessed!

Demetrius was ever the social butterfly. Yet he was an extremely private man. Most never even thought that his demons ran so deep. Many saw a certain level of that pain and felt an immediate connection to him.

Demetrius touched the lives of so many: Raymond, Stephen (domestic Partners), Annie and Willy (parents), Ann, Keisha, and Allen (Siblings) Debi (2nd Mother) DaVal and Benz (Brothers by another mother) Danny, Chrissy, Becca, David, Brian, Eric, Dennis, Matt, Leah, Aaron, Rachael, Sean, Shawn, Omeil, Nixon, Sara, Lenny, Sam, Tyler, Jay, Jason, Jonathan, Paul, Lee, Ryan, (friends, clients, projects and loves) the names go on and on and on.

Demetrius was a graduate of Scranton University and Albany Law School and had a passion for writing, legal consultancy, public service, music, and life itself.

He had the most wonderful talents to include making music by tickling the ivories of the piano or pushing and pulling the bow of the violin. Writing short stories, poetry, or the contemplative thoughts for discovery. Creating the most incredible and delicious 5 star dinners from scratch, or making new friends. Developing relationships at the drop of a hat, to name a few.

He influenced us in so many positive ways, stayed strong and true to his being, nurtured and loved the beagle breed and always offered an open hand and heart to those that needed it the most. He will be so sorely missed.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his calling hours b/w (3pm – 5 pm) on Thursday, March 25th, at the Magin and Keegan Funeral Home at 891 Madison Avenue in Albany, NY.

God Bless Demetrius. May this spirit and memory last forever in our hearts.

that is who he was and will always be. I LOVE YOU DEMETRIUS and wish to celebrate the life you lead.

I know that Demetrius Rests in Peace.

Though I feel him watching me, protecting me, as my guardian he waits for me to join him so we may complete the path he has brought us both to. I know he watches over many others; I also know

“ I am sorry for your loss.. Your description of him describes exactly how I remember him. I met him freshman year at Scranton. He was one of my first real friends at Scranton and helped me get through a tough time at Scranton where I was contemplating leaving Scranton. We remained good friends at Scranton. We had many great times together. I will surely miss him.

“ Demetrius and I started work at Bryant & Stratton around the same time. One of my first memories is of the warmth that emanated from him. He was also a really funny guy, and he had a cool hairstyle! It was easy to be friends with Demetrius. He made it easy. I am deeply saddened to hear the news of his passing. My thoughts are with his family.

“ I had the pleasure of working alongside Demetrius for a number of years. Our offices were across from each other and very often we'd talk through the walls (sometimes I wondered how we got any work done). Whenever I would sneeze Demetrius would ask "is there a Pomeranian in here?" and then burst out laughing, which would then send me into a hysterical laughter fit. I will cherish the time I spent with him. His kind and gentle generosity won't be forgotten.

Sending love and my sincerest heartfelt condolences to his family and loved ones. May you find peace in the fact that he touched the hearts of so many people. Demetrius, thank you for being a friend, for the laughter, and most importantly for the kindness you continually showed me.

I knew and met Demetrius through Harm Reduction for which I will be forever grateful for. His kindness to all regardless of situation is what touched me most and what I will carry forward. WILD ROSE GROW IN A CLUSTER SOME BECOME OLD AND WITHER OTHERS ARE PLUCKED EARLY GJS A SMALL MATTER IN THE DND. WHAT DOES MATTER IS WHICH DELIVERED THE SWEETEST FRAGRANCE WHILE THEY WERE ALIVE. It's a fine fragrance my soulful friencc do and job well done
