“ Geoarge and I shared many good times on his old "bike" including going down to the Garden Grill to shoot darts. We climbed the John's Brook Lodge trail to Mount Marcy together and slept over night in a "lean to". We also tried to kill a bear in the village of Racquette Lake to help the people there that the bear was pestering. That did not work out well! All good fun stuff! George was a great friend and I feel awful that we lost touch during our married lives. We will miss him, but remember him in our thoughts and prayers
