“ Pino, as he was known to me always lived his life with humor and a great big smile. He always presented himself as a funny guy and somehow always drew you in to laughter which the world now very much needs. Loss of his presence will be very deeply felt. God Bless Him and may his family be comforted by his spirit and memory. ”

“ Joe was my first friend at Freihofers back in 1978 packing at the end of the Danish line in downtown Albany. He showed me the ropes by making sure I could pack as fast as two guys while watched 🤔. He said it would make me stronger. I always admired Joe as a friend and a mentor. I'm sure he's organizing the soccer matches for all in his new home. We lost a really great guy.
