“ John James and Monte are the three original members of the round table which was started in Ida Yarbrough Homes. a place up Gavin for friends and family members to just sit around drinking and talking s excuse my language but that's what we did. and we all had a good time it was our place to just get rid of worries stress and problems of the world today it was our place of solitude. it will be Miss as well as John.

“ My dearest John: I love you more than words can express! Your smile was always loving and sincere! I'll always remember your face on Christmas Day when you were just a little fellow! You were always positive minded! You were always loving and helpful. You always saw the best in everyone!

Your my loving angel John! May God continue to Bless You and cherish your wealth of knowledge you have brought home to our loving God to share!

Your always loving oldest sister Doreen Springsteen-Gibbes.

I'll am unable to attend your last service but I will be there in spirit my dear brother!

I'll keep a candle burning for your spirit!
