“ Our dear, loved friend, we shall miss you hearty laughter, your love of life and your desire to always find good time. A valued friend to all he met. His heart as big and loving as can be, Mike's love of his Irish Heritage, often surfaced with a beautiful song, with a new found friend at the annual super bowl party. His great voice and sweet Irish songs were, thoroughly enjoyed by all. A kind and sweet spirit gone too way too soon. May god bless you and hold you with all the love you held in your heart. Our deepest condolences His family.

*Love and prayers.

*Loved working with Mike! A natural railroader. Think he took his last trip over the Mohawk with me . Left the railroad after that trip and never returned. Great friend and brother.

“ Always great to see Mike at work. No matter what, he put everyone in a good mood. Retired a year before Mike but had some great memories. I let it slide that he was a Patriot's fan but glad to be a fellow Irishman. Will miss him greatly.

“ Unfortunately I never had the pleasure of meeting Mike Sr., however I'd still like to extend my condolences to his family... especially to his son Mike, who has been a brother to my son. Brandon spoke of your father with the fondness he carried for my father, which is HUGE! Mathis bless you all.

“ I will never forget that eyebrow look he would give me when I would get a ringer in horseshoes. I would always hit a tree branch. He would then call me pitiful S.O.B. or just drop his shoes on the ground.

We will always remember Mike. His name always comes up at Pine Haven. He will never be forgotten. With Love from Jack, Jean and Patrick Allen.

My thoughts and prayers to the family. Going to miss Mike. Every time I watch New England football. I will be thinking of him, they never lost a season after I gave him a pair New England ski gloves. Was always nice to see him and the frowning smile he had. Until we meet again
