

Philip L. Rabadi

October 8, 1986 - April 13, 2022

Philip L. Rabadi, age 35, of Slingerlands, passed away on Wednesday April 13th, 2022. Philip was a shining bright light in this world. He was kind, endlessly charismatic, funny, intelligent, patient, and an immediate friend to all. His smile was breathtaking and his laugh was infectious. Philip was simply a magnetic person. To have known him was a genuine gift in this lifetime.

Philip was born in Albany, NY to Shaw and Tori Rabadi (Emerick). He was a graduate of Guilderland high school where he excelled academically, on the soccer team, and tennis team. He received his bachelor's degree in Mathematics from SUNY Albany. He then became an employee at St. Peter's Hospital to work in the healthcare field before attending the Albany Medical College PA program.

Philip and his wife Ellie are true soulmates and partners in life. They spent nearly all their time together and enjoyed every moment of it. They were married in September of 2021 at the most fun, beautiful, joyful wedding celebration possible. It was the absolute happiest day of Philip and Ellie's lives. These two were known to tear up a dance floor together for hours with questionable but committed dance moves. They recently built their new house and were creating it into their own unique home. His favorite part of the house was his workshop that accommodated all his woodworking tools. Phil's first project there was building an incredible chicken coop that Ellie had dreamed up. He wanted six chickens, but Ellie bought double that amount, which he of course took in stride. The two worked together in the same practice as surgical PAs at St. Peter's Hospital and sincerely loved working with one another. They missed each other if the other wasn't at work that day. Anyone who was privileged enough to know the two of them as a pair knows what a special, extraordinarily deep bond and love they have.

Family was of utmost importance to Philip. He had a very close relationship with his parents and siblings. He loved spending time with his parents and having family dinners at their home. He and his brother, Brendan, were best friends their entire lives. They were so close that Brendan generously allowed his garage to become Philip's personal woodwork shop for years. The two brothers and their wives had, and will continue to have, a very tightly knit group friendship. Philip absolutely cherished his younger sister Lexi. He was in awe of her artistic talents as a performer and her beautiful soul. He chose her as the person to marry him and Ellie at their ceremony. At Philip and Ellie's wedding, their bridesmaids and groomsmen consisted only of their brothers, sisters, and their partners. Philip felt very grateful for the friendships forged through all of these siblings and their companions.

Philip found an interest in woodworking and was self-taught by watching endless Youtube videos. He quickly became very talented at this hobby and enjoyed making beautiful pieces for their home, family and friends. Many of his friends are lucky enough to have a "Builds by Phil" original item. He was always happy to make a trip to Home Depot for whatever project he was working on. Phil was a natural athlete and excelled at any sport. Soccer, golf, skiing, weightlifting, backyard games, tennis, or trying to throw a rock at a tree better than his brother, even as adults. He especially loved a great day on the golf course. He achieved his dream job of working as a surgical PA at St. Peter's Hospital. He was very talented at and proud of his work. Phil adored his and Ellie's giant Newfoundland dog, Murphy, even though he was actually allergic to him. Philip was known to break out a good Dad Joke at any moment, appropriate timing or not. He looked forward to watching Premiere League soccer games on the weekends, with Liverpool of course being his favorite team. Phil was also a talented guitar player and singer. He was a movie buff and always showed up early to the theater to catch the trailers, unless Ellie made them late to the show. He really appreciated a perfect cup of coffee and absolutely drank too many cups per day.

Philip is survived by the love of his life, Ellie Radin, loving parents Shaw and Tori Rabadi, brother Brendan Rabadi and his wife Amy Marshall, sister Lexi Rabadi, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family in Jordan, and so many wonderful friends. He is predeceased by his maternal grandparents Louis E. and Joan A. Emerick, paternal grandparents Hanna M. and Hilalleh Rabadi.

Philip's legacy will never be forgotten. He made the lives of those around him better. He made the world better. He will be remembered by his friends and family when they hear a Dave Matthews song, have an ice cream, sip a great IPA, hit a PR in the gym, land a joke for a crowd, walk the halls of St. Peter's, watch Liverpool score a goal, nail a golf swing, let loose on a dance floor, or drink their morning coffee. Philip's family thanks all those near and far for the absolutely endless love, strength, and prayers.

Calling hours will be Wednesday, April 20th at Albany Country Club at 300 Wormer Rd in Voorheesville from 3-7pm. A memorial service for Philip will be held Thursday, April 21st at 10am at Albany Country Club.

In lieu of flowers, to honor Philip, a scholarship fund has been established in his name at his alma mater, Albany Medical College, for deserving PA students who embody Philip's most cherished characteristics. Donations can “ Dear Shaw, Tori, Brendan, and Lexi - my heart breaks for you and the loss of your beloved Philip. He was a beautiful soul in a beautiful family. It was my privilege to share in the joy Philip brought to this world through memories of Rachel and Lexi being entertained by him, when many older brothers might ignore his younger female sibling and her little friend. You were my girl's extended family and we loved it! Needless to say, Philip was also a great role model and athlete which my son Kelly remembers well as a fellow Dutchman on the soccer field. If our children are any indication of our own success, then know that in his short time here, Philip was a shining star and your love and caring made him so.

May Philip's memory inspire others to love and help you heal from this senseless tragedy.

“ Growing up with Brendan meant growing up with Phil too. Playing tennis at SUNY, building jumps at the golf course, ping pong in the garage, shooting that blowgun in your backyard, or checking our IMs when it was our turn to use the computer. Phil was part of it all. But unlike other little brothers, Phil went from tagalong to friend a long time ago. Even now I can see his wry smile when cracking a joke and hear his big, belly laugh when somebody else did (or wiped out at the terrain park). Phil was intelligent, determined, and devoted to his family. So much more. I will miss him terribly. My deepest condolences to all who were lucky enough to know him.

“ Dear Rabadi family,
Our hearts are broken for you 💔
Lord, have mercy
on those who mourn
who feel numb and crushed
and are filled with the pain of grief, whose strength has given up
You know all our sighing and longings:
be near to us and teach us to fix our hope on you through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

“ We have known Ellie and her family since she was a young girl. She has remained a close friend of our son Sean for many years. Often when the kids were home from college or during holidays, we would be greeted with a visit. It always meant so much to us. One such visit we learned about a very special guy named Phil. It quickly became apparent to us that he was the one for Ellie. She had found her person.

Shortly before their wedding, we were fortunate to receive a visit from both Ellie and Phil. The beautiful couple sat around our fire pit with us and it felt like We knew Phil forever. This past Christmas Ellie and Phil stopped over while our son Sean was in town. They were excited to share with us that they were putting finishing touches on their new home, the chicken coop Phil was making, (per Ellie's design and request), and of course we all shared lots of laughs. It was a very special visit. We knew how wonderful Phil was as a person and that his life with Ellie was filled with mutual love and adoration.

Our family shares an incredibly amount of sadness and grief for Phil, Ellie, and both of these wonderful families whose lives are forever changed. Phil's strength and positive energy will shine forever in those who knew and loved him. When his name is uttered it will be with a full heart. Keeping you all close in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless-

“ My memories of Phil began on 6 Mac, just as Lisa Armao so vividly described. Phil was such a hard worker, very well-organized, motivated, kind, and enthusiastic. His energy and kindness spread everywhere. I once told him he could do anything he dreamed of doing. He then told me his dream of going to PA school, so I advised him to pursue experience as a Patient Care Tech, and eventually wrote a letter of recommendation for him, for his application to PA school. I wanted to hire him myself after his graduation!

I knew he would excel, and be a wonderful professional, just like he was as a beautiful, kind, and compassionate human being.

He will be missed by all of us who had the pleasure and blessing to have worked alongside him, and to have been able to share time with him, while here on Earth.

He was a gift to everyone. May God Bless you all.

“ There are not enough words to describe what an exceptional person Phil was. From shy, polite unit clerk on 6 Mac to eager, ambitious patient care tech to honors student, to confident, trusted, respected, smart PA in a prestigious surgical department; we watched Phil grow up and grow out. There are absolutely no words to provide comfort to his family during this tragic time. But his family knows, how we all did, how special he was. He will be missed.

“ Our hearts , along with the hearts of an immeasurable number of people, are shattered by the death of your beloved son Philip. Philip was a classmate of our daughter Leah in the Guilderland High Class of 2004.

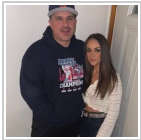

While many years have passed since those school days our family clearly remembers Philip and his wonderfully sweet disposition - polite, sincere and kind. Philip was comprised of the finest of human qualities.

Our fond memories of Philip will forever remind us to aspire to those qualities every day.

We pray for peace for the Rabadi family.

“ Phil, I'll always remember my time as your roommate my senior year at UAlbany. You were always up late studying but you always made sure that you weren't bothering me or keeping me up. One memory I'll always have is when I woke up screaming from a dream of falling and you were awake studying. The look on your face was gold and you asked if I was alright and then we laughed about it. I wish we had kept in better touch after I graduated. From how hard you worked at your studies it is no surprise what a success you became. I'll also always remember the great food we'd get from your dad's restaurant BFS.

To Phil's family, my deepest condolences. I cannot begin to fathom what you are going through with this sudden, tragic, and senseless loss. I pray for strength and healing for you and all of Phil's loved ones.
