Born in Albany on Feb. 25, 1939, Tom graduated from Cathedral Academy, Siena College, and received Masters degrees from SUNY Albany.

He and Barbara Ellen English married in 1967. The newlywed couple served in the Peace Corps in Panama from 1967 to 1969. IBEW and later for NYS Housing and Urban Development, retiring in 2000.

Tom will be dearly missed and long remembered for his intellect, humor, and compassion. He held a deep belief in service to others as a way to affect positive change in his community and around the world. In the 1980s, Tom was deeply involved with the sanctuary movement, assisting refugees from war-torn Central American countries. He supported his church in its effort to work for the poor in Haiti. For many years Tom spent his Saturdays at the Troy Farmer's Market selling fair trade coffee on behalf of the people of San Lucas Toliman, Guatemala.

Tom found refuge in the outdoors and nature, and loved to share its wonder with his six grandchildren, Sophia, Nico, Doyle, Faith, Oona, and Taj.
