

Thomas J Savage

May 27, 1954 - December 5, 2017

Thomas James Savage, 63, made his last flight on 5 December 2017. Born on 27 May, 1954 he is survived by his loving wife Rose Marie, children Jessica, David, Jason, Tommy, six grandchildren, parents William and Joanne Savage, siblings Don, Mary, John, Bill, Monica, Kevin, Jessica, David and their spouses, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, nieces and very close friends. Tom served as a US Army aviator for 10 years before joining Wings Air Rescue as an air ambulance pilot in 1999. He has been employed by Med Trans Corp. for the last 18 years flying patients at various hospitals around the country. Those that knew him best appreciated his sense of humor, his contagious smile and his generous heart. He was a loving husband and father and a consummate professional as a helicopter EMS pilot. May God take him into his loving arms and help him watch over us.

“ My heart is so very heavy over the loss of Tom. He always greeted me with a hug, smile, and kiss on the cheek. He was one of the warmest, most genuine souls ever to grace this world. May He rest peacefully in Our Father's arms, watching over us all. It was an honor and blessing to know you, Tom.
